SILK WEAVERS ON WHOLESALE STRIKE

Between 2,000 and 3,000 Operatives Quit Work at Patterson, N. J.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS.

Second Labor Disturbance in City in Six Months—More Employes Expected to Walk Out.

Patterson, N. J.,Feb. 25.—The silk weaving and dying industry of this town was paralyzed today when between 2,000 and 3,000 workers employed in the shops of Arohnson and Blum, S. J. Arohnson and Co., and Doherty and Wadsworth went on strike. The men are demanding an 8-hour day, a minimum wage scale of $12 per week. Twenty-six firms are expected to be closed down before the day is over.

The walk out of the weavers is the second disturbance that has occurred in labor circles here in the last six months. In August, 1912, more than 3,000 men were called out by I. W. W. officials who organized the industry and forced the employers to come to terms.

A week ago, 400 men employed by the Henry Doherty Co., quit work when they ware requested to operate three and four looms instead of two. Since that time the spirit of discontent has grown. Last night a mass meeting was held when Elizabeteh Gurley Flynn and other leaders made speeches. It was then decided to call a general strike today.Officials of the I. W. W. claim that 3,000 men will be out before tomorrow, but the employers estimate is much lower. It is predicted at strike headquarters that the dyers will leave their shops in sympathy with the weavers.

Elizabeth Gurley Flyn, famous I. W. W organizer, Carlo Tresca, and Patrick Quinlan, of New York, were arrested and ordered out of town today when they started to address a crowd of silk factory strikers. They refused to leave and were locked up on the charge of disorderly conduct. The strikers were greatly angered at the action of the police as a meeting had been arranged to be held in Turn Hall. The police broke up the gathering by arresting the speakers.

It was estimated this afternoon that 4,000 workers had joined the strike, but the fact that the leaders were held in jail made it unilkely that any demonstrations would take place during the day.

Word was received that William D. Haywood, national organizer for the I. W. W. was on his way from Cincinati It was announced that he would not be permitted to stay in the city A special detail of detectives was assigned to watch for Haywood and notify him on his arrival that he must not remain here. The I. W. W. men say that Haywood will pay no attention to orders to leave town.

RAILROADS RESPONSIBLE.

Supreme Court So Holds in Case of Man Using Pass.

Irrespective of the Hepburn rate law, the Supreme Court of the United States today held that a person accepting gratitous transportation from a railroad is still under the protection of state law against his negligent injury or death.

The decision was reached in the suit of the heirs of Charles A. Schuyler, assistant chief clerk of the railway mail service, stationed at Ogden, Utah, who was killed in a wreck while returning from his daughter's funeral at Oakland, Cal. At the time he was riding free on his "commission" as a mail employe in a mail car The Southern Pacific railway claimed that he was a trespasser because its employes had no right to admit him to the car and therefore it was not liable for his death

The court did not pass on the question of whether railway mail employes may have the transportation when not on duty, but held Schuyler's heirs entitled to recover under state law

NEWS OF THE DAY.

In a single coffin the ashes of the seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, who were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Smith home at Harrisburg, Pa., during the absence of the parents on Wednesday night, were buried Sunday. The little church where the funeral was held was crowded with 800 persons, who had plowed their way through mud in automobiles, wagons and on foot to attend the services. A collection was taken up to defray the funeral expenses, for the parents were destitute.

Two Chicago unions of the International Brotherhood of Elecerical Workers were sued by the federal government yesterday under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, for alleged interference with messages of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company in interstate commerce. As part of the labor war against the telegraph company the government charges officers and employes of the unions with combining and conspiring through actts of violence and depredations, to injure the Postal telegraph wires, to interfere with the transmission of government and commercial messages in interstate commerce. The alleged interference is declared to have been deliberate.

Left alone in their home at Oxley, a small station on the Western Maryland railroad, 37 miles south of Elkins, W. Va., three of the four children of Hubert Slough, a trackwalker, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home yesterday afternoon. The father was attending to his duties along the track and the mother left the little ones at home for the purpose of calling on a neighbor some distance away, locking the doors, it is said. The crew of a passing freight train stopped and succeeded in recovering the bodies. A nine-year-old boy had escaped from the building. The bodies of the younger children, whose bodies were found under the cook stove, where they had evidently gone for protection from the flames. While the flames were at their height the frantic mother reburned, and in an effort to enter the building, was so severely burned that her life is almost despaired of.

Lyman Mauldin and Aurelius Taylor were burned to death in a shanty at Charlestown, Cecil county, Md., Sunday night. The men were intoxicated it is said, and were last seen alive at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. It is supposed that fire was caused from an overheated stove, and that when the fire started the men were asleep. Both men were fishermen and gunners.

David Fellows, nineteen years old, employed as a package collector in the department of S. Kann, Sons & Company, Washington, fell from the fourth floor of the store to the bottom of an elevator shaft yesterday afternoon and was killed. Gordon Williams, eighteen years old, the negro elevator conductor, started the elevator upward, it is stated, just as Fellows was about to enter. Williams was thrown off his feet as the elevator went up, and his body, turning a somersault, plunged down the shaft.

Ninety-five federal volunteer soldiers were executed late yesterday at Sauz, below Juarez. They compose part of the garrison which revolted Sunday, angered at the killing of former President Madero, the former leader. One at a time, the soldiers were stood against an adobe wall. Ninety-five times the firing squad aimed and fired. Most of the men are said to have displayed much courage, declining the execution mask.

Wilson Gillet, who killed Miss Florence Pearce as she was returning from church in Mansfield, La., Sunday night, was lynched yesterday.

William Helfer, a trombone player, whose home is said to be in McKeesport, Pa., shot and killed himself after perhaps fatally wounding Rose Vancamp, an actress, of Columbus, Ohio, said to be his wife, who has been playing with the Larue Stock Company at Covington, Ky., The tragedy occurred in their flat.

Porfirio Diaz, deposed dictator of Mexico, now in Egypt, in the event of foreign intervention will return to Mexico and fight whatever nation seeks to rastify peace "In the case of foreign intervention, which includes intervention by the United States," he declared emphatically, "I would go back at once—even if it did not—and do my duty to my country."

CONDITIONS MORE SERENE IN MEXICO

Several Candidates for Presidency Already in The Field.

RESTORING ORDER.

People of Country Believe Their Only Salvation Lies in Choice of a Military Leader.

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—The next president of Mexico is likely to be either General Felix Diaz or Foreign Minister Francisco de la Barra, with the chances favoring the nephew of Profirio Diaz, as the Mexican people now appear to see their only salvation in a military ruler.

This is the concensus of opinion today among natives and foreigners in closest touch with the situation. Emilo Vasque Gomez, who is reported to be trying to win the support of General Orozco for the presidency is not considered serious. His main claim to recognition now is the ingratitude shown him by Madero.

Meanwhile the work of pacification is being conducted by the new temporary government with all possible dispatch. The governors of all but the states of Campeche, Yucatan,and Tabasco have been won over, according to official statements from the palace today.

The greatest menace considered by President Huerta and his cabinet is the activity of Emilo Madero, who is reported to have organized 2,000 Maderistas and declared that he will fight to the death before surrendering to the new regime. A federal force has been detailed to attack this aggressive member of the widespread Madero family

Huerta supporters say the only way to prevent American intervention and its accompanying horrors of war lies in a strong support of the present military dictatorship That the government now plans to temper justice with more mercy than heretofore shown was indicated by the preparation today for introduction in Congress of a bill pardoning all political prisoners

El Paso, Tex, Feb 25.—Alberto Madero, uncle of the former president, Francisco Madero, has been executed in the city of Chihuahua, according to an unconfirmed report received here today.

It is also reported that Abram Gonzales, the Maderist governor of Chihuahua has been under arrest in the capital for a week, has been executed.

Advices from Mexico City today state that plans have been made for seizing by the government of the entire estate of all of the Madero family in Mexico. The seizure will include not only the personal fortune of the late President, but also of his father, brothers, and uncles, amounting in all to considerably more than $100,000,000.

All peace negotiations with Gen. Salaar and Orozco, rebel leaders, by the Huerta government, were today declared off by the rebels. They declare they put no faith in the promise of the government to grant them amnesty. Salazar's rebel army has been augmented by the addition of more than 200 men under Jose de Saez. Salazar's army, it is declared, numbers nearly 3,000, and all are incensed over the killing of Madero, whom they had fought.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Peace throughout the City of Mexico and contiguous territory, was reported general today by Ambassador Wilson in his dispatch to the State Department. The general attitude of the people indicates, at least, a temporary acceptance of the Huerta "iron-hand" government, the ambassador said, and all signs today point to the stability of the military dictatorship, so far as the state of Mexico is concerned.

The ambassador reiterated his belief in the protestation of the Huerta officials that the death of Madero and Suarez was not the result of a conspiracy and that they were killed without the connivance of present high government officials.

ROW IN A LUNCH ROOM.

Colored Boy Uses Knife Upon Mother's Assailant.

Some excitement was caused in a lunch room on the north side of King street, near West, yesterday evening, by a row which occurred in the place between colored people, during which John Breckenridge, a boy, cut John Wilson. The injuries, however, were slight, although he hurried to Dr. Penn for treatment. Officer Roland appeared and took Breckenridge in custody, and he was brought before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of assault.

The accused stated in extenuation of his offense that Wilson had attacked his mother, Maggie Breckenridge, and he went to her rescue. Breckenridge was dismissed and Wilson was fined $5 for assaulting the woman.

MADAM MOUNTFORD'S LECTURE.

The lecture by Madame Mountford on Friday night at the Young People's Building, aside from the benefit so worthy, thep roceeds going to the Free Kindergarten promises to be a rare treat to all who attend. Madame Mountford's expensive information and the manner in which she portrays biblical characters as well as the scenes of action, bring to her audience most vivid word-pictures. Her subject Friday night will be "The Good Shepherd," considered one of her most distinctive addresses. Madame Mountford was born and brought up in the Holy City of Jerusalem, having lived there the first twenty-two years of her life. Therefore her accounts of the life in Bible lands are accurate and most interestingly put before her listeners. Those interested in Bible study will have the opportunity on Friday night next, to instruct themselves and be entertained at the same time.

MEETING OF "CIRCLE B."

At the meeting yesterday afternoon of "Circle B," of St. Paul's Rector's Aid Society, Mrs. Virginia Smoot gave an interesting address on Rome. Her remarks were illustrated by a collection of beautiful pictures and detailed photographic views. Mrs. Smoot spoke most pleasingly and entertainingly embracing a great many points of interest, chiefly concerning the churches of Rome. The attentive manner of her listeners bespoke their appreciation of hearing so attractive a subject discussed by one so familiar with that city. Two vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Arthur Bryant, accompanied by Mrs. O'Brien. The ladies presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Urban Lambert, and Mrs. Isaac Gregg. This circle will not meet next Monday but a week from Monday and the talk for that meeting will be upon Mexico, so prominent in the public eye at present.

STUART OUT FOR GOVERNOR.

Files Official Notice With Party Authorities.

Richmond, Feb. 25.—Formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor of Virginia was made yesterday by Henry Carter Stuart, of Russell, to J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the state Democratic committee. Mr. Stuart is the first of the candidates for state elective office this year to make definite announcement.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon W. F. Martin, clerk to Mr. Stuart, appeared at the office of State Treasurer Asher W. Harman, and deposited a certified check for $250 the amount of the entrance fee as fixed by the Byrd Featherston primary law, being 5 per cent of the first years' salary of the governor.

Mr. Stuart has long been regarded as a probability in connection with the office of governor, and for more than a year his candidacy has been a fact.

MORE VICTIMS OF ANTARCTIC TRIP

English Officer and Swiss Doctor Reported as Latest Victims.

OTHERS OF PARTY SAFE

Dr. Mawson and Six Companions Forced to Spend Winter on Adelia Islands—Party Started in 1911.

Sydney, N. S. W., Feb. 25.—The toll of human life exacted by the Antarctic was increased by two today, when a wireless dispatch from Adelie Land, by way of Macquarie told of the deaths of Lieutenant B. E. S. Ninnis, an English army officer and Dr. Merz, a Swiss members of Dr. Douglas Mawson's Antarcitc Scientific Expedition.

The other members of the party of fifty were said to be safe, but Dr. Mawson, an ustralian and six of his companions were forced to spend the winter on Adelie and because they missed the expedition's ship, Aurora. The vessel could wait no longer because of the ice, and is now bound northward with all but Dr. Mawson and his immediate party and the two dead men.

Dr. Mawson left Sydney December 2, 1911 with a company of something like fifty men, and started in the general direction of the South magnetic pole. He planned to land at least three expeditions and his main object was to survey and map a stretch of coast, 2,000 miles in length, between Cape Adare and Gaussburg. Dr. Wilde and Liutenant Watkins were important members of the expedition. Wilde had been with Shackleton and Scott, and Watkins carried with him a Vickers Monoplane which he planned to set up in the Antarctic and make flying trips over the frozen land. It was not known whether he succeeded in his aviation experiment or not. Dr. Mawson had served with Shackelton.

The last previous message from the Aurora was on February 17th. It said that all members of the expedition were aboard the vessel which was then on its way to pick up the party under Wilde. They had been left in 1912 at the base of Termination Glacier.

From the wireless received by Prof. Davis, it was surmissed that Dr. Mawson, with some of his companions must have made another landing on Adelie and gone on an expedition from which they did not return in time to board the ship. It was supposed that the Aurora could not wait longer without being frozen in the ice. She is a sailing vessel.

Suit for Damages.

New York, Feb. 25.—Contending that the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Pullman car Company failed to furnish the protection that would have made it impossible for an unarmed man to insult her as he did, Mrs. Sarah Salzman, of Brooklyn, has brought suit for $50,000 against the two companies. Her complaint sets forth that while she was asleep in a berth on a train leaving Chicago for New York, on September 4, 1912, a man whose name she knows but does not mention, parted the curtains of her berth and insulted her. In defense the Railroad Company has answered that Mrs. Salzman was not on the train.

Drys and Wets Contest

Prayer meetings will be held from the present time until the date of the election. Much feeling has been aroused in regard to the election.

OPENING OF SEASON.

To Play First Baseball Game on March 24th.

At a meeting last evening between members of the park stockholders and President S. A. Breen and Captain Kemp Cockrell, representing the Cardinal Atheltic Club, it was agreed that the Cardinals should occupy the baseball park the coming season. The first game will be played Easter Monday, March 24th, just one week in advance of the game to be played with Manager Clark Griffiths' "Climbers," which will be contested at the American League Park, Washington, D. C. March 31, 1913.

The baseball "fans" of Alexandria are greatly pleased to learn that this city is to have "an all home team," composed entirely of the "stars of the diamonds," in other words—the rennited Cardinals—who will cause trouble to any team who may try to lower their colors.

Every person who knows the "ins" and "outs" of the great and inspiring game of baseball is aware that it is absolutely necessary to have the aid and patronage of the public to make a team successful, and it is earnestly hoped that the Alexandria "fans" will do all in their power to make the year 1913 the banner baseball season.

The basketbal spirit of the Cardinals is now at fever heat and they are so anxious to play that they cannot wait until the merry springtime, but must practice immediately so as to avoid sore muscles and stiff joints when they play on the open diamond.

ALEXANDRIAN PROMOTED.

A. A. Merchant Elected President of National Bank of Cuba.

Mr. William A. Merchant was elected president of the National Bank of Cuba last Wednesday to take the place of Mr. Edmund G. Vaughan resigned.

Dr. Jose Lopez Rodriguez was elected vice-president to succeed to the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Merchant.

A banquet was tendered the same night at the Hotel Inglaterra to the outgoing and incoming presidents.

Mr. Merchant, who is a native of Alexandria, has been prominently identified with financial affairs ever since he went to Cuba. His career in the bank has been a noteworthy one as evidenced by his selection now to be its head. His knowledge of credits has been an invaluable asset of the bank and has contributed greatly to its prosperity.

But in Cuba Mr. Merchant's greatest achievement, the one which has caused the people with business interests in this inland to feel especially grateful to him, is what he accomplished for reciprocity. An article which he published in an international edition of R. G. Dunn and company's magazine, and entitled the "The Commecial Future of Cuba," was copied in every quarter of the civilized globe and occasioned editorial comment in every newspaper of importance in the United States. This particular article aroused journalistic interest in Cuba and created the feeling that made reciprocity possible. It was followed by six other essays on Cuba which also had a wide circulation.

Mr. Merchant was the first president of the American Club and served for two terms. He is an honorary member of the Centro Gallego, the great Spanish club.

Freeman, president of the Virginia State Conference of Charities and Corrections, delivered a lecture on the "Cry of the Children." Dr. W. M. Smith, president of the Virginia Board of Health, presided and introduced Dr. Freeman. The latter, in his opening remarks, paid a high tribute to Miss Rose McDonald, presidentt of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, and her assistants and declared that the Alexandria Society had accomplished more than any branch in the state. His address was a broad and comprehensive review of child life from the physical, moral and mental standpoint and was instructive to parents, teachers and all who have dealings with children.

HEAD-ON COLLISION.

ngineer Cogbill, of Richmond, Killed in Cab.

ichmond, Va., Feb. 25.—Southbound ain No. 13 and northbound train No. on the Richmond division of the uthern Railway, met in a head-on. llision at 12:34 o'clock yesterday af. rnoon near Jenning, Prince Edward unty, causing the death of Engineer . In the belief that his orders were to eet No. 13 at Jetersville, Conductor twell proceeded north, colliding with e southbound train a mile and one. alf out from Jenning, on a sharp rve, which prevented one train from eing the other until they were only few feet apartt. ATTACK ON LEGISLATURE.

Blames General Assembly for the Evil Caused by Liquor.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 25.—John G. Wooley and Rev. J. D. McAlister, D. D., were the speakers at an anti-saloon mass meeting at the Academy of Music Sunday afternoon. Mr. McAlister made one of his characteristic addresses, blaming the Legislature and State officials for the evil caused by liquor and saying tthe Anti-Saloon League would continue its fight until Virginia goes dry. He said if the next Legislature does not pass an enabling act, "we will elect one that will."

Mr. Wooley's speech dealt largely with prohibition as a national issue. Both speakers discussed the Webb bill. Mr. McAlister quoted the liquor dealers as saying it was the most dangerous move ever made against the liquor interests. A large crowd applauded the speakers.

OPPOSE BIBLE IN SCHOOLS.

Revolutions of First Baptist Congregation of Richmond.

Richmond, Feb. 25.—"Whereas it is not the function of the State to teach religion, and whereas the highest interests of the church and state are promoted by their entire separation, and whereas recent action of the school board is interpreted as the civil authority ordering the reading of a religious book, the Bible; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That Dr. George W. McDaniel and Brethren Ashton Starke, R. C. Williams, S. E. Woodson, A. W. Patterson and J. Booton Hill be appointed as a committee to appear before the city school board and present our views and the historic position of tthe Baptists on this question."

The above resoluton was Sunday morning drafted and passed at a called meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist Church after it had listened to an impressive sermon by Dr. McDaniel which was directed against the compulsory reading of the Bible in the public schools.

Dr. McDaniel took as his text, "The Power that worketh in you." He said in part:

"The Creator's method is that of stimulating inward resolutions rather than that of coercive compulsion from without. Children forced to attend Sunday school sometimes react, and compulsion in youth may cause antipathy later on. "There was a time when the theory, 'Whose is the government, his is the religion,' was held by a vast majority of Christendom. This text is a denial of that theory. Following this false doctrine, Louis XIV., revoked the Ediet of Nantes, signed by his great-grandfather, Henry of Navarree; Calvin burned Servetus at the stake; Luther loosed the hounds of persecution on the Baptists; Holland destroyed her greatest statesman. John Barniveldt, and banished her great historian, Grotius. Henry VIII delighted to persecute for conscience, and John Knox, of Scotland, so tarnished his great name. The blackest pages in American history are those which record the religious persecutions in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Virginia. Massachusetts, Obadiah Holmes was whipped. Clark was imprisoned and Roger Williams banished. At Ashfield, Conn., they did confiscate the property of Baptists to build a church for another denomination. In Virginia, Baptists were persecuted to imprisonment for no other reason than preaching the Gospel as they understood it and refusing to support an established church."

New York—"The fear of not making enough money is the hell of the American people," exclaimed Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked, of California, commenting on money kings.

Trenton, N. .,—After "confessing" the murder of Luella Marshall, William Altenhoffer told the authorities that he had "just dreamed it while under the influence of morphine."

HAD MONEY IN HIS BOOTS.

Spears Probably Slain for Purpose of Robbing Him.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 25.—R. S. Woods, deputy sheriff, of Albemarle county, and a special agent of Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, spent a part of last week here. Mr. Woods investigated the murder of Louis Spears, near Afton, and in speaking of the case, said that the woman Spears had married had been first arrested with her son, Will White, but had been freed after a preliminary hearing, and that Spears' body was only located in the well by the buzzards which continually hovered over tthe spot. The well was thirty feet deep, and the body was covered over with several feet of trash and branches.

When the officers commenced to remove the debris, the woman broke dow and admitted that her son had shot Spears and thrown his body into the well five weeks ago, about the time the negro disappeared.

Spears was well-known here as a hard-working draymaa, and was reputed to carry about $1,000 around with him in his boots, which he wore continually. This money probably furnished the motive for his murder.

KILLS MAN IN HIS HOME.

Tragedy in Roanoke Boarding House Yesterday.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 25.—Announcing that he had killed the man who ruined his home, A. M. Dillman, about 28 years old, a painter at the Norfolk and Western Railroad shops, appeared at the police station yesterday and surrendered.

Investigation proved that George Joyce, a clerk in a shoe store, was lying dead in Dillman's home with bullets in his breast, thigh and abdomen.

Joyce had been rooming at the Dillman house several months. Dillman became suspicious of the relations between Joyce and his wife, and after leaving the house yesterday morning, ostensibly to go to work, returned. He claims he surprised the couple in Joyce's room. It is alleged Dillman had said that Joyce made an effort to secure a weapon and that he then shot and wounded Joyce.

Dillman, it is stated, backed out of the room, Joyce following, until the two were in an upstairs hall, when Dillman fired again, his victim falling to he floor. Dillman then went to police headquarters and gave himself up.

Dillman is a native of Botetourt county, but has been living in Roanoke many years and has been regarded as a hard working, respectable man. He was married to Lena Ayers January 27, 1908. She was then 18 years of age.

Joyce was about 22 years old and came here some months ago from Danville, where, it is said, his divorced wife and one child live.

Fight in the Road.

Luray, Va., Feb. 25.—As the result of a desperate fight between Peter N. Shuler and William H. LeHew, both former officials of the Federal government in this county, Shuler is said to be mortally wounded and LeHew is under the care of a physician. The men met in the road and an old grudge was renewed. Shuler was formerly postmaster at Shuler, four miles west of Luray, and LeHew was formerly an employe of the United States internal revenue service. No arrests have been made.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a lotion.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash of Calendula and Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

STATE TAX CONVENTION NEEDED.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Richmond, with one accord singled out the question of taxation as the one problem which stands in most urgent need of solution.

There was no division of opinion. Many of the directors called attention to the recent grilling at the hands of the special grand jury investigating tax returns. One and all pronounced the system of taxation now in force in Virginia bad, so bad that it constitutes a menace to business and contains a serious threat to commerce.

The board of directors voted unanimously to call together in Richmond some time this spring or in early summer,a state convention of delegates from every business organiation in the Commonwealth for the purpose of drafting a tax reform measure that will conform to the business demands of the state. The bill thus drafted will be submitted to the next General Assembly for adoption

WILSON IS INTERESTED.

The President-elect may very properly feel a deep interest in the appropriations made by the present session of Congress, and may without any indelicacy use his influence with members of his own party with a view to the curtailment of expenditures. The responsibilities of the Presidency will be his next week, and he will be the President of the United States when the moneys now appropriated are spent. If our political calendar were not very badly out of joint he would have entered upon his office soon after his election. Accident rather than a careful arrangement of dates made this impossible. But these appropriations are for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next, and Governor Wilson is not going outside of his own responsibilities if, as is reported, he has expressed his views on the subject to Democratic leaders in Congress.

As Mrs. Frank Stupka, emaciated and poorly clad, stood in the court of domestic relations in Chicago yesterday waiting to testify against her husband on a charge of non-support, her baby died in her arms. Dr. Park, of the city health department and two other doctors, declared that the baby died of starvation. Stupka sat stolidly in his chair. Judge Uhlir called him before the bench and asked sharply: "What are you going to do about it?" " I can't do anything. I can't support her," Stupka replied, though he admitted he owned some property. He was sent to jail.

ACT OF RETROCESSION.

Copy of Interesting Document as Passed by Congress in 1846.

The following is an exact copy of the act of retrocession passed by Congress,July 9, 1846, returning to Virginia the portion of Alexandria City and county now within the State:

An act to retrocede the county of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, to the State of Virginia.

WHEREAS, No more territory ought to be held under the exclusive legislation given to Congress over the District of Columbia, which is the seat of the general government than may be necessary and proper for the purpose of such a seat; and whereas the experience hath shown that the portion of the District of Columbia ceded to the United States by the State of Virginia has not been nor is ever likely to be necessary for the purpose; and whereas the State of Virginia, by an Act passed on the 3rd day of February, 1846, entitled "An Act accepting by the State of Virginia, the county of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, when the same shall be receded by the Congress of the United States," hath signified her willingness to take back the said territory ceded as aforesaid:

Therefore, Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled.

That, with the assent of the people of the County and Town of Alexandria, to be ascertained as hereinafter prescribed, all of that portion of the District of Columbia ceded to the United States by the State of Virginia, and all the right and jurisdiction therewith ceded over the same, be, and the same are hereby ceded and forever relinquished to the state of Virginia, in full and absolute right and jurisdiction, as well of soil as of persons residing or to reside thereon.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to vest in the state of Virginia any right of property in the custom house and post office of the United States within the town of Alexandria, or in the soil of the territory hereby receded, so as to affect the rights of individuals or corporations therein, otherwise than as the same shall or may be transferred by individuals or corporations to the State of Virginia.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, that the jurisdiction and laws now existing in the said territory, ceded by the United States by the State of Virginia, as aforesaid, over the persons and property of individuals therein residing, shall not cease or determine until the State of Virginia shall hereafter provide, by law, for the extension of her jurisdiction and judicial system over the said territory hereby receded.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not be in force until after the assent of the people of the county and town of Alexandria shall be given to it in the mode hereinafter provided.

Immediately after the close of the present session of Congress the President of the United States shall appoint five Commissioners (any three of whom may act) citizens of the said town or county of Alexandria, and free holders within the same,who shall be sworn before some justice of the peace, in and for the said town or county, to discharge the duties hereby imposed upon them faithfully, impartially, and to the best of their ability. These Commissioners, or any of them shall proceed within ten days after they are notified of their appointment, to fix upon the time, place and manner of taking the vote within the town or county of Alexandria, and shall give notice of the same by advertisement in the newspapers of said town, and on the day, and at the place so appointed every free white male citizen of the United States, who shall have resided in said county of Alexandria for six months preceding time when he offers his vote, insane persons and paupers excepted, shall vote viva voce upon the question of accepting or rejecting the provisions of this act. THE LAST MONTH OF WINTER.

Aha, old king with the hoary brow,
You are making yourself quite busy now;
You have shaken your lock o'er hill
and dale,
From the loftiest peak to the lowliest vale.

Old Boreas obeys thy kingly call,
And comes from his bleak, old Northern hall;
He makes himself heard by rich and poor,
At the lowly cot and the palace door.

But, nevertheless, you frosty twain—
Bring frolic and pleasure in your train—
Hurrah, hurrah, for the gay sleighrides,
And the calmer joys of our firesides.

The fair young belle hails with delight
Your drift of snow so soft and white;
And joy is seen in her merry glance,
For now she thinks of the ball and dance.

And the schoolboy shouts aloud with glee—
O, the winter, the winter's the time for me!
And he builds himself a snowy fort—
O, this is the time for the schoolboy's sport.

But we must not think that all is mirth
There is many a cold and cheerless hearth;
O, forget not the words once spoken to thee,
"As ye do unto them, so ye do unto me."

NEW IDEA SEIZES ENGLAND

League to Prevent Domestic Breezes From Developing Into Gales Is Latest Fad Taken Up.

A National League for the Promotion of Domestic Happiness is the latest proposal for England. It has for its promoters a few clergymen who have been impressed by the extraordinary number of couples in their parishes who have obtained separation orders from the magistrates because of domestic strife.

The idea of the clerics is that magistrates are too accommodating to applicants chafing under the matrimonial harness and if efforts were made to subdue domestic breezes they would mostly be prevented from developing into gales. So this league is to organize ministers of all denominations and kind Christians of both sexes to act as peacemakers.

They will take their respective parishes under survey and in cases of household strife where the husband is at fault the member of the league most likely to influence him will be selected to intervene and subsequently keep an eye on the culprit. If the wife is the offender then some sympathetic woman will plead with her.

Most enthusiastic workers among the poor, especially in the north, call these separation orders the "working class equivalent to divorce," the latter being too expensive for them to obtain.

The consequence is they have no real freedom, and looseness of morals is the result. In industrial centers, where both husband and wife are wage earners, this is especially the case. Lancashire alone has 25,000 people separated by law, but not free to remarry.

SAYS OYSTERS SUFFER AGONY

Dr. Wiley Asserts They Endure Agonizing Pain When Doused With Tabasco Sauce.

"Oysters on the half shell suffer untold agony when eaten," said Dr. Harvey Wiley, formerly Uncle Sam's pure food expert, the other night, according to a New York Herald Washington correspondent. "Ninety per cent. of them when eaten are alive and kicking. They suffer the most excruciating pains when you jab them with a fork and follow with a sprinkling of salt, pepper and tabasco sauce.

"It is true that they are a very low order of life, but as they eat and drink they must be live animals and have feeling. Imagine some monster coming to earth from Mars who thought that we poor human beings were very succulent morsels of food when eaten alive. It would indeed be a nice sensation to be poked full of holes and covered with about six pounds of salt.

"However, this will not deter me from indulging in the delicious half-shell habit. I am going to eat my oysters in such a way as to save them pain—one jab with a fork, put the sauce on quickly and then gobble it.

"It's a good thing that they can't yell and jump, for if this were so our dining rooms would be full of tragic moanings and shrieks. However, this would not be so bad, for we would then have the alternative of cooking them."

Paid Scott $15,000 for a Poem.

What is the highest price ever paid by a publisher for a poem? It would be interesting to know whether any advance has ever been made on the $15,000 that Scott received for "Rokeby." Stephen Gwynn, in his life of Moore, tells us that Murray offered $10,000 for the copyright of "Lalla Rookh," "but Moore's friends thought he should have more and, going to Longman, they claimed that Mr. Moore should receive no less than the highest price ever paid for a poem. 'That,' said Longman, 'was $15,000 paid for "Rokeby."' On this basis they treated, and Longman was inclined to stipulate for a preliminary perusal. Moore, however, refused, and the agreement was finally worded: 'That upon your giving into our hands a poem of the length of "Rokeby" you shall receive from us a sum of $15,000.'"

Light Like That of Day.

Patents have just been taken out in Germany for using marble instead of glass in lamps, which has the effect of making the illumination scarcely distinguishable from daylight. Innumerable experiments have been made with tinted and patterned types of glass with the idea of producing this effect, but all have been failures. As a last recourse a sheet of white marble was planed down until it was semi-transparent and then different intensities of light were shown from behind. The result was exactly what so many hundreds of experiments had failed to produce.

Developing this discovery the patentees have fitted lights to the cornice of a room with such success that it is difficult to prove that it is artificially lighted.

Poet's Unhappy Childhood.

Thomas Gray, author of the immortal elegy, was one of 12 children and he only one of the lot that lived. His seemed destined to go the way of his brothers and sisters, and was suffering from convulsions, when his mother, in desperation, opened a vein in his arm with a pair of scissors and saved his life. His father, a scrivener man, had no use for him or for his mother, and never contributed to their support. His lonely and unhappy childhood explains the melancholy that tinged his life and writings.

WOMAN BREEDS ESKIMO DOGS

Seems Queer Occupation, but She Has Made a Remarkable Success of the Work.

At Grove Park, one of the suburbs of London, Mrs. Scott conducts a very interesting dog farm. Her specialty is Eskimo dogs, which she breeds and trains for the market. The market is not very large, but it is sufficient to make it worth her while to raise and train the best possible Eskimo dogs. It is not the food market, nor the ordinary dog market. It is the market for Eskimo dogs which are trained for Arctic exploration.

If you decide to make a journey to one of the poles, you know that Eskimo dogs are absolutely essential. You can get good Eskimo dogs in Greenland, or in Alaska. But the good dogs in Greenland may not be exported except by special permission of the Danish government; and the good dogs in Alaska are not so good.

One trouble with ordinary Eskimo dogs is that they have no breeding and no discipline. They will obey the master with whom they have been brought up, but when they start after fish or other game, even their master can control them only by the exercise of brute force. For the purposes of your exploration you need dogs that will obey orders given by a white man, dogs that are broken to the harness and are not afraid of work, dogs that have learned team work.

It is this kind of dog that Mrs. Scott raises for the market. Her kennels have only pure blooded animals of carefully selected stock, and from earliest puppyhood she trains them in how to eat and how to work. When she gets through with an Eskimo dog the animal is not nearly so ferocious as one that just "growed up" in the surroundings of an Eskimo village. They adapt themselves quickly to new masters, and they have acquired good eating manners, so that they are not so likely to attack the cupboard or fresh game.

Mrs. Scott feeds her animals no meat except pemmican and dried fish brought from Norway; a large part of the diet is a specially prepared biscuit. She has supplied trained dogs for a number of Arctic and Antarctic expeditions.—Scientific American.

SEEM TO HAVE LONG LIVES

Politicians, in England, at Least, Find It One of the Healthiest of Professions.

Politics would appear to be among the healthy professions, judging by the number of members of both houses of parliament who have passed the age of three score and ten. The lords, whose legislative duties are less strenuous, have, however, a larger number of veterans in their ranks than the commons, as there are 23 peers who have reached eighty and over, while only 19 members of the lower house have seen their seventieth birthday.

The oldest peer is the earl of Wemyss, who is ninety-four years old. Lord Strathcona and the duke of Grafton following with ninety-two and ninety-one years respectively, to their credit. Mr. Samuel Young, who is ninety, in spite of his name, is the doyen of the commons, Mr. Thomas Burt, the "father" of the house, being only seventy-five, and junior in regard to age to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Mr. Jesse Collings, Sir Henry Kimber, Mr. Robert Cameron, Sir John Baker and Sir Thomas Roe.—London Globe.

Le Petit Caporal.

Las Cases, the biographer of Napoleon Bonaparte, thus describes the origin of the title Le Petit Caporal: A singular custom was established in the army of Italy, in consequence of the youth of the commander, or from some other cause.

After each battle the oldest soldiers used to hold a council and confer a new rank on their young general, who, when he made his appearance in the camp, was received by the veterans and saluted by his new title.

They made him a corporal at Lodi and a sergeant at Castiglione; and hence the surname of "Petit Caporal," which was for a long time applied to Napoleon by the soldiers.

How subtle is the chain which unites the most trivial circumstance to the most important events! Perhaps this very nickname contributed to his miraculous success on his return in 1815. While he was haranguing the first battalion, which he found it necessary to address, a voice from the ranks exclaimed, "Vive notre petit caporal! We will never fight against him!"

Hand Mirror of Brass.

Now only Egypt's first ladies ever indulged in the luxury of a hand mirror. True, they were not made of the heavy plate glass that is used in those in present use.

Before this mirror became oxidized it was in a highly polished state, and brass, when polished, can reflect a face to all intents and purposes as well as glass. The body is round, or as round as it could be made with an Egyptian hammer, and the handle has the same graceful curves of those of today.

French Machine to Moisten Stamps.

French postoffices will in future be provided, officially, with stamp moistening appliances, an innovation which is hailed by the press as a hygienic reform. As Les Nouvelles puts it "the action (of stamp licking) was not only dangerous, but entirely devoid of elegance."

Terrible Prophecy.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—It wont be long, scientifically speaking, before the human race will be hairless, toothless and toeless. This is the opinion of Professor Fred. Starr, of the University of Chicago, expressed before his class in anthropology.

Hats, shoes, and cooked food are the evil devices that will bring about the "new man."

Declared Not Guilty.

Desertions From Strikers' Ranks.

Akron, O., Feb. 25.—Action by the state legislature made in refusing to appoint a committee to investigate conditions in Akron's rubber factories, and failure by members of the state board of arbitration to make any move to bring striking rubber workers and employers together, was followed today by the first heavy desertions from the strikers' ranks.

Estimates based on counts made at the larger plants today indicate that approximately 2,500 strikers have returned to work. This reduces the number of strikers to about 15,000.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Condemned because it did not come up to the government's standard, 20,000 packages of tea, will be dumped into the Hudson river, March 2, by Collector of Customs, William Loeb, jr., and his assistants at New York. The tea weighs almost 100,000 pounds and belongs to Carter Macey, importer, and was shipped to this country from Pomosa. Macey has retained Joseph Choate as his counsel and the Treasury Department's decision to dispose of condemned tea will be opposed by legal steps.

Passage of the House bill creating a Department of Labor to be represented in the President's cabinet was conceded in the Senate today. The measure was to be voted on before the day's adjournment.

Just to show that they haven't a whole lot of faith in the Weather Bureau's prediction for fair weather on inauguration day—in view of the blizzard four years ago after the weather bureau had predicted balmy springtide—the citizens' inaugural committee is arranging today to have a force of 300 snow shovellers held in reserve on March 4. If it snows, the streets can be cleaned in a jiffy under this plan.

Mysterious Death

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 25.—J. A. Applebaum, believed to be a member of the firm of A. L. Arundell & Co., of Chicago, was found dead in his room at the Dakota Hotel early today with a pistol bullet through his heart. His wife, who says she is from Pensylvania and that her maiden name was Davis, is held by the police. The occupant next to the room of Applebaum, heard two shots fired and telephoned to the clerk. As the latter started to the elevator, Mrs. Applebaum ran down the steps and fell fainting in his arms. Since then she has refused to make a statement.

Four Burn To Death.

Salary Loan.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Checking up today of testimony before Judge K. M. Landis disclosed the existence of a salary loan combination practically amounting to a national trust. The trust has headquarters ni Chicago and Jersey City, N. J., and its ramifications extend all over the country.

Two $100,000 corporations, the National Discount Company and the Merchants and Manufacturers Finance Company, control claims of loan agencies. They pay dividends of two per cent. a month to stockholders in Chicago, New York, Cincinnati, and other cities.

Lady Scott Hears News.

Birmingham, Eng., Feb. 25.—Lady Scott, widow of Capt. Robert Falcon Scott, the dead anarctic explorer, has heard the news of her husband's death, and is herself in godo health, according to a wireless dispatch, received this afternoon by her brother, Dr. Bruce.

The wireless was sent from the South Pacific where Lady Scott is on her way to Christ Church, N. Z. She started from England in January to welcome here husband on his return to New Zealand, and was five days out on the Pacific from San Francisco when word came that the explorer and his companions were dead.

The first stop of the boat by which Lady Scott traveled, was to be Tahiti, and ineffectual efforts were made to reach her by wireless from Hawaii.

Case Continued.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—The trial of Jack Johnson, negro pugilist under two indictments for smuggling and violating the Mann White Slave Act, was continued today because of Johnson's illness with pneumonia. An agreement was reached to continue the case until Johnson was able to be out.

Johnson will be tried first on the charge of smuggling and then on the white slavec harges.

Ready to Protect Americans.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 25.—With two regiments of infantry and two troops of cavalry of the Texas National Guard taking a hand in guarding the border between Texas and Mexico, Governor Colquit twas preparing today to protect American lives and property even at the expense of sending his state troops across the line into the southern republic.

A report to the governor early today that no Americans were being harmed at Matamoras, relieved uneasiness, but the governor ordered soldiers to Brownsville, Texas to be prepared for trouble.

The threat to take an active hand in the troubles along the border was sent out by Governor Colquitt to Captain Head of the National Guard. Capt. Head crossed the border into Mexico, went to the Mexican commander at Matamoras and informed him that if a single Texan citizen is harmed, his life will be demanded as forfeit.

When Governor Colquitt received Capt. Head's message that no Texan had been harmed he ordered the State troops held at Brownsville

Jewelry Stolen.

New York, Feb. 25.—Awakened by an intuitive instinct that told her something was wrong, Mrs. Frank Seton, of Brooklyn, went to her window early today and saw a man climbing into the window of the house next door. Knowing her neighbors were not at home, Mrs. Seton figured the intruder was a burglar. She called up the nearest police station but the officer at the other end of the wire Mrs. Seton said, declared it most annoying to have such alarms turned in at that hour but would see what he could do.

For more than half an hour Mrs. Seton watched her neighbor's house. She saw the burglar climb leislurely out of the window glance cautiously around then stroll down the street. Fifteen minutes later one policeman sauntered up. Investigation showed that the house had been looted of about $1,000 worth of jewelry.

Women Commits Suicide.

George W. Lee, a salesman, said to be a distant relative of Gen. Robert E. Lee, entered his apartments in the Lester, 2134 F street northwestt, Washington, yesterday afternoon and found the lifeless body of his wife, Mrs. Laura Wood Lee, thirty-eight years old, streched across a bed with a self inflicted bullet wound in her brain.

On the bed where Mrs. Lee committed suicide was found a .38-caliber revolver with one bullet discharged. No note in explanation of her act was left by Mrs. Lee. Her body was clad only in a nightgown. She had been fully dressed when she kissed her husband good-by in the morning.

For more than a year Mrs. Lee had suffered from headaches, which were so excruciating as to cause her to become delirious.

Mrs. Lee's friends declare that she said only a few days ago she would rather die than suffer another headache.

Deposed Virgin Dead.

Constantinople, Feb. 25.—Kiamil Pasha, deposed grand vizier, of Turkey, is dead of apoplexy in Alexandria, Egypt, according to an unconfirmed dispatch today.

Kiamil Pasha was unpopular with tthe Young Turks because he favored making peace with the Balkan allies. He and his cabinet were put out when Enver Bey started his revolution that resulted in the assassination of Nazim Pasha.

Trouble in the "Army."

A good sized quarrel is disturbing the ranks of the suffragettes who are hiking to Washington over the fact that General Rosalie Jones came into Baltimore Sunday night ahead of time, leaving others of the party who had not been notified of the change of programme to spend the night at the suburb of Overlea.

As a result General Jones and Colonel Ida Craft do not speak as they pass by. But both will continue on to Washington, as will all other members of the party, except Mrs. Georgia Williams, who stopped in a corner speech yesterday afternoon to hustle home because her better half had wired that the twins had the measles.

The colonel is a little pround and General Jones a little jealous over the outcome of the Overlea incident. But yesterday the colonel and her little party marched into Baltimore at the head of a howling mob.

There is an unofficial movement on foot to start a hike to San Francisco to the 1915 exposition. Mrs. Marie Baird, Mrs. John Bolch, Miss Phoebe Hawn, and a few others of the younger contingent are for it, but General Jones will not talk about the future.

MUSTEROLE
No Plaster! No Blister!

Everybody knows how the good old fashioned mustard plaster relieves a cold, an ache or a pain.

Your mother and your grandmother always applied it. The plaster burned awfully. But it surely brought relief.

MUSTEROLE is the same remedy without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. You don't have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left, even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff, Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually.

It is a staple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to patients. Ask your doctor.

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER

Doctors tell How Musterole Relieves.

Dr. J. P. Frey, Chicago, Ill., says: "I prescribe your Musterole every day. Use it in all cases of alveolar abscess and inflammation."
